Eden Ring is a new type of fantasy action RPG where you can enjoy a revolutionary offline and online interface. Offline Play All you need to play the game offline is a smartphone with iOS 7 or higher. We recommend iPhone 5 or later. Offline Play includes simplified main menus. The core gameplay elements of this game can be enjoyed without a data connection. Offline Play is very easy to use. With no connection, the game can be played in an instant, and it will be easy to play as you enjoy on the move. Offline Play does not have any limit as to how much time you can play, however, the game does end when your phone battery runs out. Offline Play will be available in the "Offline Play" icon that will be displayed on the title screen of the game. Online Play You can enjoy the game online together with other players in the multiplayer mode. The multiplayer mode allows you to enjoy a 10-person online battle. Many battles can be enjoyed in a row, and the game ends when the player who is ranked first runs out of stamina. You can enter a battle with other players in the town map. The battle system in this game is an asynchronous online battle. During an online battle, players who have their Stamina Full become the opponents of other players who are currently participating in a battle. When a player enters a fight, the location of the battleground will be revealed on a map, and the active player will be highlighted as an orange dot. You can access the location of a battlefield by clicking on the "battle" button in the game lobby. Choose your party from a total of 26 characters Fight alongside your allies in the online battle by defining your own team. You can freely choose your heroes to attack. You can change the attack order of your party as you battle. Battle with your party together when it is full of stamina Many players engage in battles when their stamina is full. Battle experience points, which are earned from winning battles, can be used to increase your level. You can upgrade your characters and strengthen your equipment through the battle experience points that you earn from battles. Travel together with other players to the same location You can travel together with other players to the same location in the town map. You can also travel to the same locations in the map that is displayed in the offline mode. 4 Types of Character By deepening your understanding

Various bug fixes and improvements ======================================= FAQ: 1. If I get an error and the game quits while installing, what's wrong? To get around this, disable your antivirus temporarily and try again. If that works, you may need to re-enable your antivirus. 2. When I try to install and the patch fails and the installation window closes, what's wrong? The patch needs to be installed in a freshly installed game directory. If you extracted the installer to a different directory, you need to move the patch to the game directory, making sure to preserve the original game directory. 3. Why am I getting a badge in the game? A number of people report that they are getting a badge on the character screen. This is a bug that occurs for some users, and we're going to work on a fix. 4. How do I exit the game? Press the menu button (it's the "≡" in the lower left of the screen) and select "Exit." 5. Some of my characters are vanishing from their previous work areas when I open the boss battle screen. If this happens, it may be due to an in-game bug. Try replaying that area of the game using soft reset. It may work or it may not. Re-challenge areas without soft resetting. 6. I don't want to use a skin for my character, but the game won't let me. It's likely due to certain versions of our skin pack including the same items in the same slot. You can bypass this by installing a skin pack that has items that aren'
